Pentecost Sunday
May 19th, 2024

Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared upon them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit.

Sunday Focus. The Holy Spirit gives and renews life, to each of us and to the Church. Pentecost celebrates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles, giving birth to the Church. The Spirit always gives. The Spirit not only gives but renews life as well. Like the disciples, we are continuously renewed by the Spirit for service in Jesus' name. LITURGY OF THE WORD In the first reading, the Apostles are filled with the Holy Spirit and able to preach in different tongues of the mighty acts of God. In the second reading, Paul teaches that there are many parts and different gifts, yet one body and one Spirit. In the Gospel, Jesus comes to the disciples who are hiding out in fear. He offers peace, breathes the Holy Spirit upon them, and sends them to forgive sins. Faith Catholic.

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone."
-1 Corinthians 12:4-6 All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances. God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God's plan to work, each must do what we are called to do. Guess what? We are not all called to do the same thing! For God's plan to work you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do. Copyright © 2024 Archdiocese of St. Louis

Bereavement Support for Those Whose Loved Ones Have Chosen MAiD

Has someone you loved chosen MAiD? We are offering a 4-week support group for those who are grieving the loss of a loved one through Medical Assistance in Dying (also known as MAiD or euthanasia). This small group (8 people) will offer an opportunity to work through some of the complications of this grief with others who have experienced similar situations with family and friends. This is not about the politics or morality of euthanasia. This is a peer-led group to support each other through our Catholic faith and the mercy of God. We will use scripture, discussions, and reflections to work through the many aspects of bereavement.

On Thursday, June 13, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at John Paul II Pastoral Centre in Vancouver.

Registration deadline: Thursday, June 6. Learn more and register at beholdvancouver.org/events.

Rachel's Vineyard Retreat

"God takes pleasure to see you take your little steps; and like a good father who holds his child by the hand, He will accommodate His steps to yours and will be content to go no faster than you. Why do you worry?" -St. Francis de Sales
Sometimes that is all one can do after a loss due to abortion: little steps in the right direction. Take heart! That is the beginning of your healing! You are not alone as you walk, and you will not be alone on a Rachel's Vineyard Retreat™. Join us! Why wait? Our next retreat is on May 24-26. For confidential information, call 604-525-0999 or email info@pacscanada.org.

Come and See Weekend (Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame)

The Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame (CND) in Montreal, Quebec, are inviting young women aged 20-45 to discover and learn CND's mission and history with St. Marguerite Bourgeoys. The visitation weekend will also include:

- A pilgrimage to St. Marguerite Bourgeoys museum
- Adoration and personal prayer time
- Renewal of sisters' vows
- Presentations and exchanges
- Karao-praises and quiz with sisters

The discovery weekend is free of charge and CND can cover travel expenses if needed. From May 31 to June 2 at the CND Mother House in Quebec (2330 Sherbrooke West Montreal). Learn more and register via beholdvancouver.org/events.

ADULT FAITH DEVELOPMENT NIGHTS AT SACRED HEART PARISH

We hope you can join us for this faith inspiring movie from FORMED.

Synopsis: Ninth Day - With The Ninth Day, acclaimed film director Volker Schlöndorff creates a moral thriller that "succeeds in illuminating an almost unimaginably dark story" (The New York Times). Inspired by the true story of a dissident priest's temporary furlough from Dachau, The Ninth Day transforms an ethical crisis into a nail-biting showdown and unspeakable horror into transcendent redemption.

From inside the hell of the Dachau concentration camp "Priest Block," Father Henri Kremer clings to a fragile life and challenged faith. But Gestapo officer Gebhardt, a young and ruthless lapsed seminarian, arranges a nine-day reprieve for the priest. If Kremer can persuade his staunchly anti-Nazi Bishop to capitulate to Nazi occupation, he'll go free. But if he fails or tries to escape, death awaits. Torn between duty, faith, fear for his own life and for the lives of his loved ones, in just nine days Kremer must find a way to ease his conscience, protect his family, hold on to his faith and uphold his vows.

Ulrich Matthes is "eerily convincing as a man torn by moral choices" (Time Out New York). Together, pilgrim Kremer and tempter Gebhardt "are singularly fascinating as tension-filled incompatibles" (NY Observer). Matthes, Diehl and Bibiana Beglau, as Kremer's sister, contribute powerfully eloquent performances. The Ninth Day showcases the sensitive visionary precision that has kept Volker Schlöndorff on the leading edge of international cinema for four decades.

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my thoughts may all be holy.

Act in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my work, too, may be holy.

Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit,
That I love but what is holy.

Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit,
To defend all that is holy.

Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit,
That I always may be holy.

Amen.
